Dear Mr. Berg:

RE: 7:07-CV-996 (TJM/GJD)

This is my final plea and request that you submit copies of all documents that are in your possession and/or filed with the court in reference to the above referenced case to my address as shown herein. I am disappointed in your apparent unwillingness to furnish me with copies despite promising to have the documents sent to me several months ago following my many requests by e-mail and telephone.

Since I have met my terms of the agreement and have paid you the full fee charged for your services and need to represent myself I need these document immediately in order to effectively address my case with the court. Your cooperation is a necessary and will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
